Notings.

Miss Jeannette Fowler is seriously ill again.

Paw Paw ball team plays at South Haven to-day.

Lyman Cooper, who has been seriously ill, is slightly better.

The Maccabees defeated the Woodmen at base ball yesterday; score, 10 to 9.

It is reported that Alphonse and Gaston attended the Alumni banquet Friday evening.

The case of scarlet fever at Henry Mull's is carefully quarantined. No new cases are reported.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Ocobock have had their house painted on the outside and nicely fixed up on the inside.

Under the new train schedule, mails arrive from Lawton at 8:50 a. m., 12:45 and 4:55 p. m.; from South Haven at 8:17 and 11:40 a. m. and 3:50 p. m.

Married, at the M. E. parsonage, Wednesday, June 24, by Rev. E. O. Mather, George W. Jones and Miss Carrie Quackenbush, both of Waverly.

Advertised letters: Mrs. Minnie Ulam, Mrs. W. M. Hill, Mrs. Jennie Aldrich, John C. Bodine, Alfred Mickle, F. Ransom, Lee Robertson, John E. Stafford.

Miss Maggie Maguire is another of The True Northerner's old friends. She has taken the paper over 30 years, and read it from childhood in her father's home, who was a subscriber from the first.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Harrison announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Lilian Munger, and William Eugene Conklin, Tuesday, July 7, 1903, at St. Paul's Episcopal church, Wallingford, Conn.

Miss Grace Clark, sister of Mrs. E. E. Shook, died at Petoskey, June 24. Miss Clark made her home here with Mr. and Mrs. Shook for several months, and had many friends among Paw Paw young people.

Frank Roach is now a full fledged M. D., having received his degree at Ann Arbor last week. He is home for a short rest, after which he will enter the practice of his profession. He has not yet decided on a location.

A. U. Craven has purchased from Mr. Shearer the land that belonged to the late Wells Mosier, which was originally a part of the farm now owned by Mr. Craven. The house was moved to his own farm by Mr. Shearer.

There are quite a number of cases of measles in town. Householders and physicians must immediately give notice of the first case and of every case of measles to the health officer, Dr. C. S. Maynard. This is required by law.

The Paw Paw High School Alumni association enjoyed one of its most successful reunions and banquets last Friday evening. The reception at the home of Harold D. Spicer was a very pleasant affair. The banquet at the opera house was finely served by the Presbyterian ladies, over 140 being seated at the tables. The program that followed the banquet was an excellent one. Wilbur J. Warner is the new president of the association, Florence Shafer the new secretary and treasurer.

Roy Taylor and Clyde Bassett, with Derhammer's band of South Haven, are on the trial trip of the new steamer City of South Haven, taking the steamer at Detroit, Wednesday, and going via Mackinac to Chicago, thence to South Haven. It is said the new steamer will race from Mackinac to Chicago with the Manitou, hitherto the fastest steamer on Lake Michigan. The new boat will be the largest that ever entered the harbor at South Haven, and it is said is the finest steamer on the lake.

OLD SOLDIERS.

Two Enjoyable Reunions in Paw Paw This Week.

LAFAYETTE LIGHT GUARDS.

Co. "C" of the 70th New York infantry held its annual reunion yesterday with Comrade Longwell at the Dyckman house. The following comrades, some of them accompanied by their wives, were present:

Capt. J. M. Longwell and Lieut. T. J. Chaffee of Paw Paw, Lieut. Don C. Rogers of Milwaukee, Nathan Hurlbut, A. W. Cumings, James Clark, A. J. Roudy and Art Sirrine of Paw Paw, Robert McKinstry of Detroit, John Sprague and John Sirrine of Muskegon, H. B. Myers, Edward Carney and John Barnum of Decatur, John W. Emery of Grand Rapids, James Abrams of Lawrence, Herick Hodges of South Haven and Jacob Becker of Berlamont (adopted from another company). Judge B. F. Heckert and M. O. Rowland were also present as guests of the company at dinner, and J. F. Bullard assisted in the martial music and social session.

"Billy" Bullard of Niles, who never misses one of these reunions, sent word that he could not come on account of the illness of his wife. However, the boys could not get along without martial music, and Levi Hawkins was substituted for "Billy" at the snare drum, while "Dell" Cumings blew the fife and J. F. Bullard beat the base drum.

An interesting incident of the reunion was the recalling of the fact that the day was the 41st anniversary of the wounding of Comrades McKinstry, Worthington and Rogers, who were present, as well as others of Co. "C," and several members were killed on the same occasion.

Another peculiar incident was brought out: Over 40 years ago, Comrade John Sprague, while in the service, had a water beetle crawl into his ear. The surgeon could not get it out, but poured sweet oil into the ear, and as it felt easier in the morning and gave no further trouble, it was supposed it had crawled out during the night. Sprague recently became almost deaf in that ear and went to a specialist in Muskegon this spring, who removed the almost perfect body of the beetle from its tomb of 40 years, restoring the patient's hearing.

In the afternoon, an interesting business and social session was held, several members of the company and Judge Heckert making interesting talks.

J. M. Longwell was elected president of the association, A. W. Cumings, secretary.

Altogether, it was the of the most enjoyable reunions the company ever held, and its reunions are always especially interesting, because of the hard service the company saw enables the survivors to relate stories of the most absorbing interest.

CO. "C," 3D CAV.

Co. "C" of the 3d Mich. Cav. are holding their 18th annual reunion in this village yesterday and to-day. This is the first time the company has met in Paw Paw since its members took the oath of military service in September, 1861. Then there were 100 vigorous youths, now there are about one-fourth that number of old, gray headed "boys."

Owing to the custom of holding a two days' reunion, it is not possible to give a full roster of attendance, as some of the members will not arrive until to-day.

One of the pleasant incidents of the annual reunions of this company is the practice of bringing wives and children and making a general family gathering. Up to the present time the following members have reported for duty:

Capt. O. W. Rowland of Paw Paw, Cornelius Buys of South Haven, John D. Chandler of Orting, Wash., A. F. Hurlbut of Lansing, Ford Murch and Hugh McPherson of Mattawan, F. C. Rhodes of Hartford, J. C. Ward of Paw Paw, David M. Ward of Lawton, Geo. A. Cross, Frank Branch, Amos Dopp, J. H. Kelly, L. E. Lamphar, O. D. Martin, J. B. Marshall, H. A. Wells, Jas. Widner and T. C. Tyner (honorary) of Lawrence, S. P. Harvey, Daniel S. Camp, J. P. Goss, M. H. Hoguire and R. C. Nymann of Bangor, M. A. Howe of Michigan City, N. Thomas (honorary) of Paw Paw.

Both the above companies were entertained by Brodhead post last evening, at G. A. R. hall. The ladies served a fine six o'clock supper, which was followed by a program, mostly informal, in which a number of the comrades and others participated. The hall was filled with the old soldiers, their ladies and invited guests.

Commenting on E. A. Crane's proposition concerning the old court house, the South Haven Tribune says: "It is unfortunate that the above generous offer of Mr. Crane was not accepted by the village or township of Paw Paw. It would have added one more to the ornaments of the place and, as suggested, would have been a standing incitement to patriotic thought. Probably it is now too late, but it would seem that if it were not, some other patriotic citizens might be found to join Mr. Crane in his generous proposition." The True Northerner believes it is a mistake not to preserve the old court house in some such way as Mr. Crane suggests, and we will be glad to publish any communication in the matter.

WARD & SONS

How 3 Fruit Farmers Can Get $18 Each on 1 Year's Time With NO INTEREST.

Give us your note for the $18.00 and then with the money furnished buy one of our Vineyard Gang Plows. You get a plow on one year's time. We save the room and storage. We bought this spring 24 three bottom Gang Plows and at this writing we have 3 unsold. They are bulky and our storage room is pretty well filled up. You may as well be using them as to have them lying idle during the season. We have the only "BEST GANG MADE."

We are again selling grape baskets—this time the product of the Lawton factory. We want you to keep this in mind from now on until the season is over. We guarantee the price as well as the goods.

Did your gutter leak this last rain? Wouldn't it be well to have Jimmie go up and put on a nice new galvanized iron trough and connect it up with new corrugated iron pipe with your cistern? The cost isn't so much as the satisfaction.
